Falkland Islands

- 312  #65S-76S 1933 ½d to £1 Set Perforated SPECIMEN, the full iconic King George V set for the Centenary of British Administration. All are fresh mint and never hinged, with no trace of blemishes nor toning on the gum. Overall very fine centering (a few are fine-very fine). Archive records indicate 473 sets were perforated SPECIMEN, very few of which are in private hands, making these much scarcer than the regular set. Scott Classic catalogue value is for a set of hinged SPECIMEN overprints only. S.G. catalogue value of £4,250 is for a hinged perforated set.

- 313  #84S/96S 1937-38 ½d to £1 First Printing Set of 13 Perforated SPECIMEN. All are fresh, mint never hinged and except for the 6d (small light discoloration on gum) are without blemishes or toning on gum. Most are very fine centered but four values, including the £1 are fine only. All are first printings (with a £39 premium for the 6d and 1sh) except possibly the 5sh which appears to be a second printing (1938) with slightly lighter gum. If this is correct, the shade merits a premium of £950. The full set of 16 perforated SPECIMEN has a Scott Specialized value of $2,500 plus 40% for never hinged. A bonus in this lot is #58 line perforated 14 x 13.7 (with mark on King's neck).

- ✉ 1 1857 10k brown and blue Coat of Arms on Folded Letter, mailed in 1858 from Samara to Saratov (boxed receiver on back dated 12 February 1858), with two page letter inside written in cursive. The stamp has three large margins and the bottom is clear of the outer frameline. It is tied to the cover by a large double ring c.d.s. as well as a fairly light pen cancel. Opening tear on back has been neatly mended with stamp hinges, still very fine and a great example of Russia's first stamp on cover.
